Dear Neil,

Thank you for writing to me and I am sorry for the delay in my response.

I am very concerned about the job losses at BT Group and I will ensure that Ed Miliband and the Shadow Business Team have this information and can make representations to government.

These are important key workers – who have been vital to keep our information and communication services running during the pandemic – and they deserve more respect.

If there are any members who are constituents who are at risk of redundancy, please ask them to contact my office directly and I can take up their case.

Please take care in these difficult times.

Yours,

Thangam
